

Name _____

Winter Choice Board

Directions: Select 8 boxes to complete, sign, and return.

Draw mitten pairs with numbers 0-9 on them. Compare using $<$, $>$, or $=$.	Pick a winter holiday to research. Write 5 facts about it.	Write numbers on paper snowballs. Order from least to greatest.	Glue cotton balls on paper to make a snowy picture. Then add details.
Cut cardboard or paper into a sled shape, then paint and decorate.	Write a story about a snowflake.	Draw snow people. Add different emotions on each.	Create a thank you card for someone you love.
Collect snow and bring it inside. Record what happens to it in a journal.	Cut out a paper snowflake using as many shapes as you can.	Act out different winter sports. Have someone guess what sport it is.	Write a step-by-step guide to build a snow person.
Write a poem about your favorite winter activity using rhyming words.	Work as a team with someone else to build or draw an igloo.	Paint a snowflake shape with glue and sprinkle salt on it.	Listen to your favorite winter song and sing along.
Write about and illustrate what the weather is like today.	Make and set up an obstacle course using winter-themed items.	Make paper dolls of people around the world in different winter clothes.	Build a snow person. Roll a dice for each body part, such as 1 button or 3 eyes.
Write step-by-step instructions for how to wrap a gift.	Write about what happens to plants in the winter in cold places.	Create an alphabet chart using winter words for each letter.	Learn about animals that hibernate in the winter. Draw your favorite.

Name _____

Winter Choice Board

Directions: Select 8 boxes to complete, sign, and return.

Write a recipe for hot cocoa and illustrate each step.	Pick an animal that lives in a cold climate. Learn about it.	Make a calendar for the month. Mark dates like holidays or birthdays.	Do a relaxing winter activity, like drinking hot cocoa or using a cozy blanket.
Go on a winter nature walk. Listen to the calming sounds.	Make a snow globe with a paper plate and plastic bag.	Make a list of 10 winter-themed words and draw a picture of each.	Fill a bowl with water. Bring outside. Record what happens after 5 hours.
Play a song that reminds you of winter. Dance to it.	Create winter-themed word problems. Ask someone to solve them.	Draw and label community helpers that work during the winter.	Freeze toys in ice cubes. Use spoons, warm water, and salt to rescue them.
Learn about a holiday tradition from a different country.	Make a musical shaker with paper, tape, and dried rice. Draw snowflakes on it.	Make paper snowflakes. Use them to measure items.	Create a winter-themed word search.
Use 2D shapes to draw a winter-themed picture.	Read a winter-themed book and write about your favorite part.	Take deep breaths as you imagine snowflakes falling.	Make winter animal puppets using items around your house.
Play music. When it is paused, freeze like a snowflake.	Penguin walk across the room. Count how many steps it took.	Draw a self-portrait in your favorite winter clothing.	Write a list of 10 things to do outside in the winter.

Name _____

Winter Choice Board

Directions: Select 8 boxes to complete, sign, and return.

Make a winter-themed gift and give it to someone.	Make a mask of your favorite winter animal using paper.	Write 10 winter-themed words. Write words that rhyme with them.	Learn about Arctic animals and locate their habitats on a map or globe.
Write spelling words on paper. Crumple into snowballs, toss, and read them.	Use ice, salt and a spoon to make a small ice sculpture.	Make an ornament by drawing or building.	Make 10 different paper snowballs. Use a ruler to measure each.
Collect items from nature and make a winter-themed collage.	Make paper snowballs. Write and solve addition facts on them.	Pretend to be a melting snow person.	Draw a snow person. Write numbers on the top two snowballs. Add.
Gently fall to the ground like a snowflake 10 times.	Take a walk outside and listen for winter sounds.	Write a story about a snowperson who comes to life.	Pick a winter animal and research how they survive the winter.
Cozy up and read a good book.	Take deep breaths while watching or imagining a snow globe.	Create a new winter tradition for your family. Write about it.	Work with someone to build a fort using items around your house.
Read a winter themed book.	Draw and label what happens to water when it freezes.	Use toothpicks or pasta and marshmallows or gum drops to build a tree.	Write a recipe for holiday cookies.

Name _____

Winter Choice Board

Directions: Select 8 boxes to complete, sign, and return.

Make 10 different paper mittens. Use a ruler to measure them..	Make a map. Mark on it the areas that get cold winter weather.	Write positive things about yourself on paper snowflakes.	Make paper snowballs. Write and solve subtraction facts on them.
Draw a scarf. Add a pattern of shapes that repeat.	Write 10 winter-themed words. Count the syllables in each word.	Make a polar bear using torn paper.	Find winter-themed objects. Estimate their length.
Invent yoga poses that remind you of winter items.	Write down "Winter Wishes" or goals you have for this month.	Write a recipe for your favorite food to eat in the winter.	Track the temperature outside today with a thermometer or on a website.
Make snowflakes and map your spelling words on them.	Blow bubbles outside. See if it is cold enough to freeze them.	Do a kind deed, like cleaning your room or helping someone with their coat.	Draw pictures of snowy, cold, or icy landforms.
Find or make an instrument. Use it while singing your favorite winter song.	Draw or build a snow person. Read your favorite book to it.	Using items around your house, design and build a den that could keep a hibernating bear warm.	Draw something in the snow.
Draw a picture of you trapped inside of a snow globe.	Design and build or draw a gingerbread house.	Make and throw 10 snowballs.	Write a silly holiday story.