Play a card game with someone at home. Addition War Garbage Speed Subtraction War	Read for 20 minutes. You can read to someone else, or you can read silently.	Make something using Legos, blocks, or any other building materials that you may have at home.	Sing any song for or with someone in your house (a pet is okay!)
With an adult's supervision, find a kid friendly recipe... measure, stir, and cook something today. P. S. Your teacher loves goodies!!	Write a story about what you did on your snow day. Give 3 details.	Create a structure that floats out of materials that you have at home. How many pennies can you add before it sinks?	Find something in your house that can be used as a musical instrument and play it to a song you hear on the radio.
Graph the types of birds that frequent your yard or windows. Once you've tracked your birds, make a graph to show how many of each kind were in your backyard during a certain period of time.	Write a personal letter to your teacher. Make sure that you tell your teacher what they are good at, what you like about them, and what you think that they need to work on!	Draw a detailed picture of what the snow looks like from a window at your home.	Do jumping jacks or push-ups during commercials of your show/game.
Do a page of the Blizzard Bag Morning Work. Bring it back to school.	Do a page of the Blizzard Bag Morning Work. Bring it back to school	If it is safe to play outside, build a snow person or snow structure.	Come up with your own workout and share it with Mr. Rambow at school.
